Using the backdrop of a Polynesian paradise, timeless themes of love, duty, and prejudice are explored in this Tony Award winning Rodgers and Hammerstein musical. Recently revived to great success on Broadway in 2010, South Pacific tells the parallel stories of US Navy nurse Nellie Forbush and French Plantation owner Emile de Becque and promising young naval officer Lt. Joseph Cable and a young Polynesian girl named Liat during World War II. Each must confront their cultural prejudices as their feelings grow amidst the tension of wartime survival.

Controversial in its own time and still greatly relevant today, South Pacific is a classic Rodgers and Hammerstein musical that takes a stand against racial and cultural prejudices and encourages the audience to question their own inherent biases and beliefs.

Auditions are open to all artists with a broad range of experience and backgrounds, including, but not limited to race, ethnicity, gender and sexuality.
